

Atlantic Woodworker's Association AWA Newsletter

May 2014

7129 Morningside Dr., Halifax, Nova Scotia, B3L 2E5

Volume 32 Issue 5

Our meetings are normally held at the Salvation Army Church Hall at 171 Pleasant Street, Dartmouth. We meet at 7 pm on the second Tuesday of each month.

The event for May is not available at time of this newsletter. It will be sent out as soon as it is available. There is always the show and tell which is very exciting.

The NS Wildlife Carvers and Artists are having their 24th Annual Competition and Show May 9, 10 at Cole Harbour Place. We'll have carvings, free demo, and KV Carving Supplies will be there with lots of goodies for sale including books and supplies. FREE ADMISSION The best time for non-carvers to go would be Sat afternoon (judging will be finished and all the ribbons awarded) or Sunday 10:00 until about 3:00pm .

I have been busy building sets for Don Giovanni, an Opera that is being performed on the 23 – 24 May. It is made from recycled wood and blue styrofoam. I am enclosing a couple of pictures of early construction.

As a Reminder keep in mind the cut outs/project for the IWK kermesse. It may seem like a ways off but if you are like me I procrastinate and the deadline suddenly appears.

While you are cutting don't forget Diel Jamer and the VON project.

Atlantic Woodworker's

Wood cut outs for VON adult day Programme.

The attendees at the VON day Programme continues to enjoy the Cut outs that AWA members have Made, Art Boddy cut out 45 Bunny shapes. These pictures Show how much they were enjoyed.

Sorry about the event for the meeting but our planned presenter was unable to make it at the last minute. Sheila our event coordinator is working hard to find a replacement. If you have any suggestions I'm sure she would appreciate some help.
